ADVISESTREAM "THE E-PORTFOLIO"

Advisestream is a new advising platform created by our colleagues at Duke University. Associate Dean Dr. Dan Scheirer and Lois Scheirer will introduce the new advising platform that we are piloting at USC to help premedical students keep up with evolving medical school admissions practices and competency based assessment. Premedical students will be able to create their own pre-health portfolio online and track their own progress from start to matriculation into medical school.
